TODAY'S PRESENTATION

INDUSTRY LEGAL UPDATE

Guest Speaker Conor J. Hennessey, Esq. will engage attendees with an essential legal update, providing key insights into current New Jersey legal issues impacting all licensees.

Conor J. Hennessey, Esq.

Partner at Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP

In the specialized area of real estate brokerage law, Conor has significant experience including the litigation and mediation of business disputes on behalf of brokerages and claims brought against real estate licensees. He represents brokers and salespersons before the New Jersey Real Estate Commission and local real estate boards and provides guidance to clients on general brokerage issues. He has been involved in matters brought before the New Jersey Supreme Court, the New Jersey Appellate Division, and the Office of Administrative Law with broad-based impacts on New Jersey's real estate brokerage industry.

Contributions to RPAC are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Contributions are voluntary and are used for political purposes. The amounts indicated are merely guidelines and you may contribute more or less than the suggested amounts provided your contribution is within applicable contribution limits. The National Association of REALTORS® and its state and local associations will not favor or disadvantage any member because of the amount contributed or a decision not to contribute. You may refuse to contribute without reprisal. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, any request for the refund of a contribution must be made within two (2) business days of the date on which you authorize RPAC to charge you for said contribution. Your contribution is split between National RPAC and the State PAC in your state. Contact your State Association or PAC for information about the percentages of your contribution provided to National RPAC and to the State PAC. The National RPAC portion is used to support federal candidates and is charged against your limits under 52 U.S.C. 30116.

IMPORTANT - COMPLIANCE

FOREWARN, LLC ("FOREWARN") is not a "consumer reporting agency" and its services do not constitute "consumer reports," as these terms are defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. ("FCRA") or similar state statutes. Accordingly, FOREWARN services may not be used in whole or in part as a factor in establishing an individual's eligibility for credit, insurance, employment, or any other eligibility purpose permitted by the FCRA.

FOR NEW JERSEY USERS

FOREWARN is NOT a tenant screening service and use for such purposes violates the Terms of Use and may violate the New Jersey Fair Chance in Housing Act. A New Jersey real estate licensee should not disclose information about a potential tenant's criminal background to the landlord unless a conditional offer has been made to the potential tenant and that, as a best practice, the agent should submit all applications to the landlord without any recommendation and let the landlord decide who should be offered the lease.
